Justine Andrade will be joining the English department. She will be teaching World Literature and Foundations of Language and Literature. A graduate of Gordon College, she spent a semester studying in Wales. She has tutored and mentored students from A Better Chance.

Kaitlyn De Jong will be joining us to teach Geo/Stat and Algebra II. Having studied at Gettysburg College and West Chester University, she comes to us with teaching experience in Pennsylvania public school systems. She has also been a coach, a cappella singer, and a costume designer.

Jeff Lane has been a long-term substitute for Mrs. Weyler, and is joining the middle school team. A graduate of Eastern Nazarene College, Jeff holds a masters degree from Boston University School of Theology and Nazarene Theological Seminary. He will teach Geography 7 and Bible 6,7,8.

Suzie McLellan will be directing our theatre program and teaching Language and Literature 7. In addition to teaching at the Academy of the Pacific Rim Charter School in Boston, she has also taught in Hong Kong. Suzie graduated from Wellesley College and participated in the Eugene O’Neill National Theatre Institute. She speaks Mandarin and some Russian.

Bryan Thomason will become full-time in September. In addition to teaching Health 9 to the boys and Foundations of Christianity, he will also teach United States History—20th Century for 8th grade.